

ANARCHIST KILLS WITH POISONED PIN

GENERAL PANTELEGREFF

Russian Police Officer Assassinated on a Train by a Mysterious Stranger.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 14.—The police are scouring the country to find the mysterious Anarchist suspected of assassinating Gen. Pantelegreff, second in command of the Imperial Guard, by pricking him with a poisoned pin.

The Prince and Princess Anhalt are hourly expected to arrive here, being now on their way back from Paris in response to an urgent recall by the Government. Gen. Pantelegreff was murdered while escorting them on a train from St. Petersburg to the German frontier.

ONLY A PIN PRICK.

The General and an exceedingly good-looking and well-dressed young stranger were seated opposite the Prince and Princess in the railroad carriage. All four got into conversation during the course of the journey.

After it had become dusk, and before the lamps were lighted, the stranger rose rather abruptly from his seat, and, as he did so, in some way pricked his neighbor's wrist in such a manner as to call forth an exclamation on the part of the General.

The stranger was profuse in his apologies and ascribed the prick to his scarf-pin, which he had stuck in his sleeve after using it to cut the pages of a book. At the next stop of the train he alighted and disappeared. An hour later, when another passenger entered and asked the General to move a little to one side, it was discovered that he was dead. It was at first believed that the General had succumbed to heart failure, and it was not until the autopsy took place that the doctors found, first of all, the mark of a pin or needle prick, the skin around it being black and "anemic," and subsequently discovered traces of a very violent poison, evidently communicated by means of the pin or needle.

The Prince and Princess learned of the result of the autopsy while staying in Berlin at the Central Hotel early last week, and remembering the incident of the pin prick, notified the Russian Embassy.

LA BRETAGNE HAD A STRIKE

Delayed Three Days in Starting from Havre and Made Slow Trip Across.

The French liner La Bretagne, which got up to her dock this morning after lying outside the Hook all night, was delayed three days in starting from Havre owing to a strike among the firemen.

La Bretagne was booked to sail on Aug. 4, but did not get away until Aug. 7.

A number of the firemen were supplied by the French naval authorities. These men being unfamiliar with the transatlantic passenger service were not able to keep the ship up to her customary speed and La Bretagne made a slow trip across.

FIFTEEN DETECTIVES ARE COMING HERE AFTER ANARCHISTS.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—Advised from here today from Rome state that fifteen of the best detectives in Italy sailed from there today for America. Their mission is to watch the movements of the anarchists in the United States and ferret out to the last detail the Patterson plot which ended in King Humbert's assassination.

The men are all trusted servants of the monarchy. They have had years of experience with anarchists in Europe and it is said, know by night every prominent member of the "Reds" on this side of the ocean. They are expected to familiarize themselves with the entire American colony before their return.

Several arrests have been made in connection with the crime, which is ascribed to the Anarchist movement in Russia, for Anarchists and Nihilists are one and the same thing. Prince and Princess Anhalt are needed to identify their fellow traveler, and, like the authorities here, they do not hesitate to express their perturbation at this new and alarming form of Anarchist assassination, for while it may be possible to protect one's self from bullets, knives and bombs it is difficult to ward off mere pin pricks of a deadly poisonous nature.
